Best of Year – “Yellow summer melon and green apple make for a crisp, clean, bright and beautiful nose. The palate is peachy, with a citrus and cinnamon-apple flavored finish, walking the fine, fun line between brisk austerity and fruity richness.”—M.K.

Wine of the Week

“This Galician grape’s heritage is not well known, and may be related to Viognier—at least its aroma of peaches and apricots with a Gewurztraminer-like spice note remind me of Viognier. Since Paso Robles is a warm area, this wine is quite a surprise. It has the weight of a light red (with 14.5% alcohol), but the freshness of a light white. Serve well-chilled with ceviche or shrimp salad with lime.” —Dan Berger
